

Class 5 English Language

Chapter : Homophones

Read carefully....

A In English there are quite a few pairs or groups of words having similar sounds but different meanings and spellings. Such words are called homophones. We should be careful while using them.

B Given below is a list of such pairs explained with the help of sentences:

- Allowed — The teacher allowed me to go home a little early.
Aloud — Please read this poem aloud.
- Angel — An angel appeared to the child in a dream.
Angle — A triangle can have only one right angle.
- Berth — a bed on a train or a boat: We cancelled the trip because we weren't getting a berth.
Birth — You must write your date of birth correctly.
- Brake — The driver applied the brakes in time and the bus came to a halt.
Break — This vase is made of glass. If it falls, it will immediately break.
- Cell — This transistor works on two pencil cells.
Sell — We want to sell our old furniture.
- Dairy — Butter and cream are dairy products.
Diary — Writing a diary before going to sleep is a good habit.
- Died — His father died at the age of eighty.
Dyed — She dyed her hair dark brown.
- Dose — (of medicine): Just one dose of this medicine cured me of my headache.
Doze — light sleep: If I can doze for a few minutes, I will again become fresh.
- Floor — We want to cover the floor with a carpet.
Flour — Chapatis are usually made of wheat flour.
- Hair — Grey hair is thought to be a sign of wisdom.
Hare — The hare could run very fast but he was lazy.

11. Heal — The wound took a long time to heal.
Heel — He fell on a piece of broken glass and got a cut on the heel.
12. Loose — Children should wear loose clothes.
Lose — If you don't keep your things carefully, you will lose them.
13. Pain — She overate and got pain in the stomach.
Pane — The ball hit the windowpane and broke it.
14. Pair — I have bought a new pair of shoes.
Pare — You must pare your nails regularly.
15. Peace — A country can progress only during peace time.
Piece — I need a piece of rope to tie this bundle.
16. Pray — I pray to God for your good health.
Prey — The tiger pounced on its prey.
17. Principal — My mother went to the school to meet the Principal.
Principle — a basic rule: Gandhiji always followed noble principles.
18. Quiet — This child cannot keep quiet even for two minutes.
Quite — My father was quite satisfied with my result.
19. Root — A plant gets water through its roots.
Route — Trains running on this route are often late.
20. Stair — The man slipped while climbing the stairs.
Stare — It is a bad habit to stare at anyone.
21. Storey — My room is on the upper storey of the house.
Story — My grandmother told me a very interesting story.
22. Their — from 'they': Their house is small but comfortable.
There — opposite of 'here': We went there in a group.
23. Wait — Don't wait for me for more than ten minutes.
Weight — What is the weight of this bag of cement?
24. Waist — The water in the river soon rose above his waist.
Waste — Don't waste money; spend it carefully.
25. Weather — The weather has suddenly turned cold.
Whether — I want to know whether my answer was correct.