This is to certify that Priya Gupta was a student of Pine Hall Shoot, Mumbai, for six years. Her date of birth is April 21, 1989. Priya joined the school in April 1999 in Grade VI, and left the school in March 2007, after completion of Grade XII.

Priya has proved herself in all fields, from academics to co-curricular activities and sports. Her conduct through the years has been above reproach. She has maintained an impressive academic record. Her results in the school examinations have been commendable. In Class X, she passed the Indian Certificate of Secondary Education Examination with an aggregate of 88%, scoring 94% in English. In Classes XI and XII, she opted for Commerce with Mathematics. She has been a conscientious student.

Priya has a flair for writing, which she uses to her advantage. As the Editor of the School Magazine, she acquitted herself with credit. With her creative talents and innovative ideas, the magazine soared to great heights.

Pursuing 'Bharatnatyam' as an activity since the age of twelve, Priya has evolved into a graceful dancer. She has represented the school at various Inter-School Dance Competitions and won laurels, both for the school and for herself. Her 'Arangetram' was held on the 15th of January, 2004, proving her merit as an artiste of calibre.

Priya has been blessed with an innate artistic talent. Consequently, she studied Art as a subject. She stood first in the Cartooning and Poster-Making Competition held by the Indian public Schools Conference (IPSC). She also represented the school at a competition organised by the UNICEF on child labour, where she emerged a winner. Her paintings were displayed during the Annual Day. She was also awarded a prize for excellence in art. She has been a part of the school Badminton team. The team stood second in the Maharashtra State Competition, 2003.

As an active and prominent member of the Nature Club, Priya organise various awareness campaigns in and out of school.

Priya has always been popular with her teachers and classmates. She is a friendly and outgoing girl with excellent leadership qualities. She has been a source of inspiration and a role model for the other students. She has strong moral values and principles.

Priya intends to pursue 'Advertising' as a career. I am sure her literary and artistic skills along with her determined attitude will help her achieve this aim.

Priya has been an exemplary student and an asset to Pine Hall. I hope to see her go from strength to strength in all her endeavours.
