

STANDARD - VII
GENERAL KNOWLEDGE - PRACTICE WORKSHEET

Name: _____

Date: _____

Give one word answer.

1. This animal is also called the light shrimp because it emits light from some of its organs.

2. The atom bomb dropped by the United States of America on Hiroshima.

3. The year smallpox was eradicated by WHO.

4. The biggest glacier in the world.

5. The largest species in the dolphin family, also called the killer whale.

6. A device that emits an intense beam of light by luminescence.

7. The chemical symbol for gold.

8. The third Antarctic research station commissioned by India.

9. It is used to test night blindness.

10. The most spectacular gliders among all birds.

11. The atom bomb dropped by the United States of America on Nagasaki.

12. The southernmost active volcano in the world.

13. The gregarious and vocal animals that feed on fish and other marine animals.

14. The world's deepest-diving birds.

15. The first laser to be invented.

16. These animals are found in both the Arctic and the Antarctic.

17. The highest mountain in Antarctica.

18. These animals are known as ungulates.

19. The scientific station built exactly on the South Pole.

20. These animals in Antarctica can dive up to 500 m in water in search of food.
